

Please do not do away with XM Radio.
The local radio coverage leaves a lot to be desired and XM offers a great alternative.

I can now listen to what I want to, with no commercials, and great music and news, and I love it.

Please do not let the NAB stifle their competition. They need all the competition that they can get.

Hopefully XM will make them do something about the "crap" that they are putting out.

Bill Cloar